MILICA TEPŠIĆ

She was born on January 30, 1956. year, G. Stupnica, Dvor, Republic of Croatia.

Graduated and master's degree at the Faculty of Business Economics in Banja Luka and defended her doctoral dissertation at the Faculty of Security and Protection in Banja Luka on 24.12.2009. year on the subject of information protection and security in electronic administration.

He works as a professor at Banjaluka College, majoring in Computer science, and in the subjects: Informatics, Business Informatics, Information Systems, Protection of Information Systems and Business Intelligence.

Using theoretical knowledge and practical experience, he is the author or co-author of 72 scientific and professional papers, 7 university textbooks, 2 monographs and 3 scripts.

She participated in the implementation of 10 professional projects of interest to the Republic of Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Participated in 35 expert meetings of international and national importance.

He is the secretary of the Association of Informatics of the Republic of Srpska.

She passed the professional exam for work in public administration, is an authorized ECDL (European Computer Driving License) lecturer and examiner, licensed lecturer and mentor within the Training System for local self-government units (municipalities and cities) in Bosnia and Herzegovina. He is in the database of experts of Bosnia and Herzegovina (training providers and consultants), as an expert in the field of electronic administration and electronic office business and a member of the commission for taking professional exams for candidates with higher and higher education for work in the administration of Republika Srpska.